442 Register for Draft in Township

Lake County Total Placed at 14,700; 16,000,000 in Nation

A total of 442 Antiochans registered for compulsory military training yesterday in the township in the first peace time conscription the United States ever held.

An even 400 registered at the Antioch Grade school, and 42 were listed at the Lotus school west of Fox river. The Lake county total, while not yet completely tabulated, is expected to be more than 14,700. The national total will exceed 16,000,000.

Two of the president's sons did not register. They are James Roosevelt, captain of marine corps reserves; and Elliott Roosevelt, who sought refuge from the draft two weeks ago by having himself appointed a captain in the air corps. He is reported to be checking in material at the Wright air field at Dayton, Ohio. The other two sons registered—Franklin D., Jr., at Indianapolis, Ind., and John, the youngest son, at Nahant, Mass.

Officials See War Ahead
Press reports today in official circles in Washington, D. C., reveal that the widespread opinion is that if President Roosevelt is re-elected it will not be long before the United States will be in the war. Although the presidential plans are shrouded in secrecy, it is believed that Roosevelt will first send the navy to fight Japan in the orient, and that eventually, when trained and equipped, the conscript army will be dispatched to Europe to fight Germany and Italy. It is believed that only British officials are being told of the Roosevelt administration's plans for war.

Dr. Mary Pope Tells P. T. A. of "Mental Hygiene"

Has Practical Application for Parents and Teachers, She Says

"Have patience with children. Be reasonable in your attitude toward them, and don't fly off the handle without due reason," Dr. Mary Pope urged parents and teachers in her talk on "Mental Hygiene," at a meeting of the Antioch Grade P. T. A. Monday evening.

Dr. Pope, who is head of the medical department at the National College of Education in Evanston, told how she became interested in mental hygiene when various educational factors she was studying kept leading over into medical territory.

She therefore took a medical course, with the aim of applying this knowledge to the educational field.

"Round Table" Next
At the next meeting of the Grade P. T. A., on Monday evening, Nov. 11, the Chicago "Round Table of Christians and Jews" will be presented.

Leonard P. Aries, prominent young attorney and director of the high school course on "The American Way"; Dr. John A. Meade, assistant director of the Illinois State Department of Labor, and James M. Yard, D. D., are to be the speakers. Dr. Yard is substituting for Dr. W. E. J. Gratz, editor of the Epworth Herald, who will be unable to attend.

This meeting will be open to the public. Civic groups are being sent invitations to attend.

A card party on Monday evening, Oct. 28 is another coming event. Mrs. Elmer Hunter is to be in charge.

The first and seventh grades tied for the "room count" and the prize of $3.00 for the purchase of books for their room libraries was divided between them.

Books for Winter Reading Listed for Whole Family

A big arm chair, a red-checked apple and a book for pleasure and profit can mean enjoyable evenings for Lake county families.

A guide to some good reading is the new little pamphlet on "Books for Pleasure and Profit" recently compiled by the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, reports Home Adviser, Mrs. Helen Volk. The books suggested were selected by Miss Anne Boyd, associate professor of library science at the university.

The guide list may be obtained free of charge from the Home Adviser's office in Grayslake or from the Extension Service in Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

"Ladies' Night" to be Held by Lions Club

A 7 o'clock dinner, to be followed with dancing and entertainment, is being planned by the Antioch Lions club for "Ladies' Night," Monday evening, Oct. 28.

The party will be held in the dining room of the Roundup restaurant. George Joedicke, Walter Scott and John Atkinson are the committee. Arrangements for "Ladies' Night" were made at a meeting Monday evening in the Old Orchard Inn. President Oscar Hachmeister presided at the business forum.

Fall and Winter Attractions of Area Broadcast

Seven Thousand "Guides" to Antioch Region Are Distributed

Autumn and winter sport and recreation attractions in the Chain O' Lakes area around Antioch are set forth in 7,000 folders which are being distributed through Chicago sporting goods concerns and Antioch resorts.

Carried out in the autumn colors of buff and russet, with a duck hunting scene on the cover, the folders include a map of the Antioch lakes area, a summary of 1940 game bird regulations, a list of safety rules, and the advertisements of resorts with autumn and winter facilities.

Among the leading Antioch resorts cooperating in sponsoring the 1940 autumn Hunter's and Sportsman's Guide are the following:

E. P. Dressel's on Lake Marie; Steitz place on Bluff lake; Jim Hanrahan's, on Grass Lake; Little America, on Klondike Point; the Roundup restaurant, on highway 21; Bob Hardman's on Illwaco lake; Nielsen's Corners, Highway 59 and Grass Lake road; Haling's on Grass Lake, and Shummeson's, also on Grass Lake.

Hunting and fishing are featured by Haling's, Shummeson's, Dressel's, Jim's Place and Little America. Haling's and Jim's also have trap shooting facilities.

Rivals in the winter sport field, which made Antioch and nearby regions, such as the Wilmet Hills, a mecca for Chicagoans last year, are Steitz's and Bob Hardman's.

"Coming Thing"
Winter sports appear to be the coming thing in the lakes area, where natural facilities for skating, skiing, tobogganing, ice boating and sleighing abound. Within easy driving distance of many large cities, the beautiful Lakes area is becoming noted for its winter as well as its summer charms.

A landmark all by itself, the famous Nielsen's Corners offers hunters and fishermen's information, as well as its famous barbecues and its tavern and service station. Folks don't seem to feel that a trip to the lakes region is quite complete without a visit to "Louie" Nielsen's.

Real home-cooked food in all price ranges is featured at the Roundup restaurant and tap room, a favorite gathering place for parties and dinner groups.

Drnw Praise
The "Guides," printed at the Antioch News, have drawn many compliments from Chicago concerns and from individuals.

The Chicago firms assisting in their distribution include Faber Brothers, Marshall Field, the Sports Corner, Von Lengerke and Antoine, and the J. & R. Motor Supply company.

Many of the resorts are planning to co-operate in sponsoring a similar fishing and vacation "guide" in the spring.

Antioch Farm Shows Championship Holsteins

Brattleboro, Vt., Oct. 10—Ravenscroft Farms, Antioch, owned by E. H. Ravenscroft, exhibited the Senior and Grand Champion Holstein bull at the Dairy Cattle Congress, Waterloo, Iowa, last week.

This bull, King Bessie Senator, is a son of King Bessie Ormsby Pietertje that has 51 daughters averaging 586 pounds of butterfat and was himself officially classified "Excellent."

Forty-one exhibitors representing seven states showed Holsteins in the open classes at this year's Congress. The show included 87 cows of milk-producing age, 51 of which had completed yearly Advanced Registry or Herd Improvement Registry records. There were 141 Holstein entries in the 4-H club and Future Farmer divisions. The entire Holstein show numbered 368 head.

Organize to Bring Voters to Polls to Defeat 3rd Term

Young G. O. P. Start Work of Enlisting 5,000 New Voters

Lake County veterans and young voters this week presented a united front to bring out every available vote in the county against the third term and the boss-controlled New Deal government in Illinois.

The veterans have divided the county into six sections which they call columns, omitting the Fifth column and its subversive meaning.

Meanwhile the Young Republicans started functioning in every section of Lake County to enlist 5,000 members into the county organization.

Wesley Carey, director of the Young Republicans, said that the membership has already hit the half-way mark and that a determined effort is being made by the young voters to get out about 20,700 citizens who failed to vote in the 1936 presidential election.

Manuel Talcott of Waukegan, co-chairman of the veterans group with Charles Kapschull of Deerfield, announced the following columns and their captains for the county:

First column—Waukegan, Zion and Benton Townships—Cliff Evans, captain.

Second column—Avon, Warren and Newport Townships—M. E. Murrie, captain.

Third column—Antioch, Lake Villa and Grant Townships—Noel White, captain.

Fourth column—Shields and Deerfield Townships—Arthur Swanson, captain.

Sixth column—Libertyville, Fremont and Wauconda Townships—A. O. Parker, captain.

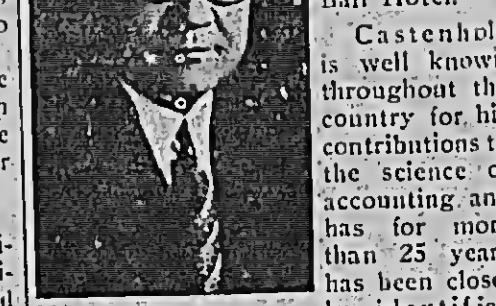

Seventh column—West Deerfield, Vernon, Elia and Cuba Townships—Milton Olson, captain.

P. S.—There is no Fifth column among the veterans.

"TOO MANY CROOKS" J. B. STAGE PLAY AT LAKE VILLA MON.

A comedy with a decided dramatic punch—"Too Many Crooks"—is the title of next Monday night's stage play at the Lake Villa school gym by the J. B. Rotnour Players.

Since opening the series of plays at Lake Villa the J. B. Rotnour Players are gaining rapidly in prestige and popularity. There are ten players on the stage, and between acts exceptional vocalists are introduced by Bob Contry, including Jimmy Parsons and his sax and Octavia Powell and her violin.

The dramatic series is being sponsored by Lake Villa merchants whose names appear in the advertisement in this issue, and who give merchants' free tickets. The doors are open at 7:30 and curtain at 8:15. Mr. Rotnour says there will be additional chairs at future plays so that plenty of seating will be assured. He advises making Monday night family night as the cost of taking the entire family is ridiculously small.

THE PRICELESS INGREDIENT

He plans to continue the study of the baking trade in the navy.

Clayton Bartlett, principal of the Lake Villa school, is vice president; and Miss Anna Drom, of Oakland school, is secretary.

The 24 teachers present at the meeting last night heard a talk on school law by W. C. Petty, county superintendent of schools.

Hunters Find Good Supply of Ducks Waiting

Sunrise Barrage Greeted the Opening of 60-Day Season at Lakes

Cooler weather, ushered in on the wings of rain Monday and a stiff wind from the north, helped to bring many mallards and pin tails down from Wisconsin to add to the coots and mudhens and make up one of the largest gatherings of birds to greet hunters in recent years.

Many folks in Antioch, as well as around at the resorts, went short on sleep Tuesday night, what with stir and bustle of late-arriving and early-arriving hunters. Many of the resorts stayed open all night.

Hunters shivered in cars, in blinds and in boats as they waited for the sunrise signal.

A broadside that could be heard several miles away greeted the signal siren on Grass Lake at 6:03 a. m. "Yep, the season's on again," sighed residents in the neighborhood of the hunting grounds as BB shots whistled over their roof-trees.

At Lake Marie, on channels linking the various lakes in the "Chain O' Lakes," at Meyer's Bay and Sullivan Lake, the shooting tended to hold off somewhat until the heaviest of the barrage at Grass Lake had passed, and some of the ducks had flown to the quieter waters.

The season will continue to Dec. 14. Shooting hours are from sunrise to 4 p. m.

Minor Casualties

Joseph Dumowsky, Chicago, was an early morning victim of flying lead pellets. Hunting companions brought him to Antioch, where he was treated by Dr. A. N. Berke.

The pellets struck the corner of one eye, and grazed his temple and ear. It is believed that no permanent injury will result from his wounds.

James Blaha, Chicago, was rescued from Fox Lake at six o'clock yesterday morning when his row-boat had overturned and he was found struggling in the water by two Antioch men, Art Smejkal of the Antioch Oil company, and his cousin, Joe Moulas, who also had gone to Fox Lake to hunt. Blaha lost his gun and ammunition. He had his boots on and was near exhaustion when he was taken into the motor boat by Smejkal and Moulas. He was taken to a resort on the east shore of Grass Lake.

Charley Haling was on the receiving end of a few stray pellets early today when glancing shots from a Chicago hunter's gun struck him in the right side. The huntsman was taking a pot-shot at a crippled hen which was near Haling's boat. Charley had the shots removed and today is going about his business as usual.

Paddock Receives Illinois Nat'l Guard Commission

George A. Paddock, Evanston Republican chairman and candidate for Congress from the 10th District, has been appointed to the Illinois National Guard Service Commission by Maj. General Samuel T. Lawton, general commanding the 33rd Division, Illinois National Guard.

The Commission, under the chairmanship of Britton I. Budd of Chicago, will cooperate with Illinois enlisted men (Regulars, Guardsmen or draft troops) and their families in solving home and financial problems arising from active service.

Mr. Paddock, who served eighteen months during the World War, received his commission at the first Officers' Training Camp at Fort Sheridan and was captain, later major, in the 342nd Infantry, 86th Division. A charter member and past commander of Evanston Post 42, American Legion, he was recently notified by the Illinois Department that he will receive a citation as one of the Illinois delegates to the 1919 convention at St. Louis that helped organize the American Legion.

The parade, starting at the water tower in the village park, will proceed south on Main street to the high school.

In it will be the Antioch Junior Legion drum and bugle corps, the high school student body.

Village Co-operates
Civic groups and the village officials are co-operating to make the homecoming a success.

"The town is yours," Village President George B. Bartlett told members of the high school student council, assuring them of his support.

Committees for the day's events are headed by James Harvey, president of the student council, as general chairman.

Assisting are the following: Publicity—Frank Petty, chairman, Joan Smith, George Sterbenz, Dance and decorations—Mary Kay Lynn, Chairman, Carol Waters, Genevieve Nevelier.

Program—Doris Klass, chairman, Robert Hunt, Mae Louise Setek. Refreshments—Margaret DeBacis, Ella Fay, Leo Buchta.

The high school swing band will play for the Homecoming dance.

Last year's conference champion, Northbrook, was Antioch's opponent in a game there Saturday, romping over the Sequoits for a 31-0 victory.

Legion Activities are Foretold in "Bulletin"

The next few weeks will be active ones for members of the Antioch American Legion post, according to bulletins sent out by J. Harry Messager, commander, and John L. Horan, adjutant.

This evening, the Legion will hold a business meeting in its hall, at 8 o'clock. At 9 o'clock Legionnaires and their ladies will adjourn to the Roundup restaurant south of Kenosha, where they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Mueller, proprietors, at dancing and a buffet luncheon.

The annual Armistice Day program will be held Nov. 10 in the Antioch High school auditorium. A speaker from the F. B. I. will discuss "National Defense." This program will be open to the public.

At 10:30 a. m. Monday morning, Nov. 11, the Legion color guard and Junior Legion drum corps will lead the line of march from the Legion hall to the village park, where a salute will be fired.

The second annual WLS show staged by the Legion will be held Nov. 21, 22 and 23 in the High School auditorium. Miss Gladys Jones is expected again to direct this year's show.

NO THIRD TERM!

A Wealth-Producing System

Ever been to an auction of factory buildings? Probably not, because it isn't exactly like selling house furnishings or books or horses. They usually sell these buildings by sending circulars around to prospective customers; then the would-be buyer reads the facts of the case and goes and looks at the plants that sound most attractive.

We saw one of these circulars the other day, and it set us to thinking. Here everybody is talking about a "profit system," and in the meantime there are invariably a lot of companies in America that go broke each year. Under any system there is going to be a lot of inefficiency; but it's only under a system like our American one that individuals—instead of society as a whole—assume the burden of responsibility.

When we talk about a profit system, then, we forget that there are a lot of losses, too. In fifteen years studied by the National Industrial Conference Board, fifteen years that were punctuated with a bad depression, slightly over half of this country's manufacturing corporations ran at a loss. But the important point is that these concerns, even though they failed to make a profit, were distributing to American consumers who weren't bothered with the profit-and-loss problem. And they were giving jobs, meeting payrolls, and contributing to local taxes in every part of the country.

Granted that there's no system on earth where everything succeeds, where there is no inefficiency and no bad breaks, isn't it better to offer the individual the possibility (it isn't a guarantee) of a fair profit, knowing that in any case it will mean an increased distribution of the good things of life to average American families everywhere?

We'd say offhand that it's pretty easy to answer that one!

The Farmer's Pocket

Chicago Herald-American

Exactly where and how Mr. Hull's so-called "reciprocal" trade treaties dig into the pocketbooks of Illinois farmers is made plain by an exhibit arranged by the Farmers' Protective League.

The exhibit was shown for the first time Saturday on the West Chicago farm of the league's president, Clarence E. Mack.

It consists of grains, meats, etc., of which Illinois farmers cannot sell as much as they raise.

And one important REASON why they cannot sell is that Mr. Hull's treaties let the SAME grains, meats, etc., come into the United States, virtually duty free, from foreign countries.

Because labor costs, land values and living standards in foreign countries are all MUCH LOWER than they are in Illinois, the foreign products can be sold at lower prices in America than the products of Illinois farms.

Thus the New Deal, while spending billions for the avowed purpose of RAISING farmers' incomes, at the same time takes a course that directly and inevitably REDUCES their incomes.

As an instance, the Surplus Commodity Corporation spent $30,000,000 to buy up surpluses of some twenty articles produced by American farmers. It gave them away to people on relief.

At the same time, Mr. Hull's trade treaties let $92,000,000 worth of EXACTLY THOSE SAME PRODUCTS be imported into America to compete against American products.

Had that not been done, it would seem obvious that the American farmers could have SOLD IN THE MARKET all the $30,000,000 worth of products that the government finally took off their hands at a heavy expenditure of tax money and that they ALSO could have sold ANOTHER $62,000,000 WORTH if those sales had not been taken away from them and handed over to foreign farmers.

With one hand the government put $30,000,000 into the farmers' pockets. With the other it took $92,000,000 OUT. And that, as Mr. Mack points out, "just doesn't make sense."

It doesn't make prosperity, either, on the farms of Illinois or in the stores and factories of Chicago, where farm money plays so large a part in turning wheels and ringing the bells on cash registers.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LINDBLUM, D. D.
Dean of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for October 20

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education, used by permission.

THE MESSAGE OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

LESSON TEXT—Luke 3:3, 8-17, 21, 22.
GOLDEN TEXT—Bring forth, therefore, fruits worthy of repentance.—Luke 3:8.

Four centuries of silence! God made a loving appeal to His people through Malachi, the prophet (see lesson of June 23), but they failed to respond, and for about 400 years no prophet had appeared with an authoritative message from God. But now, "God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets" was ready in the "last days" to speak by "his Son" (Heb. 1:12).

Before the Lord should come, however, the prophet Isaiah (40:3-5) had declared that a voice was to come out of the wilderness to cry, "Prepare ye the way of the Lord." The great honor of that ministry did not fall upon the religious or political leaders mentioned in Luke 3:1, but "the word of God came unto John... in the wilderness." When God calls a preacher, something vital and interesting is about to happen.

I. The Preacher—His Call and Character.

It is significant that the call of God for this ministry passed by the mighty of Rome, which was politically powerful, holding sway over the world of its day. It is doubly significant that it passed by Jerusalem, the religious center of the Jewish nation. God was not looking for influence, prestige, or position. He was looking for a man, and He found him, though He had to seek him in the wilderness. Where is God's man for our day?

The character of John is revealed to us by Scripture as unique and rugged. He was a striking figure as he came suddenly out of the wilderness, but the outstanding qualification of John was that he was humble and obedient to God's will. Upon such a man the power of God may fall in all its fullness.

II. His Message—Its Nature and the Reaction (vv. 3, 8-14).

Repentance, as evidenced by baptism, this was John's word to his day. He did not grant them absolution from their sins, but in repentance they were to look forward to the cleansing from sin by the washing of the blood of Christ, who was to come. John was the forerunner of Christ. His message of repentance was a preparation for the coming message of redemption.

The reaction of the people is expressed in the question, "What must we do?" Much more would be accomplished for Christ in our day if that were the response of people to the preaching of the truth. Instead of criticizing or commencing the preacher, or the sermon, let us ask, "What shall I do about it?" and then let us do it.

The answer of John was that each one should, by his works, show the reality of his repentance in the details of his daily work and life. Of course, the all-important thing is that a man should believe in Christ, and by faith receive Him as Saviour, but that faith must show itself in daily living or it is meaningless, and, in fact, nonexistent. The world is full of those who need to answer our Lord's own question, "Why call ye me Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?" (Luke 0:40).

III. His Ministry to Jesus—the Baptism and Heavenly Response (vv. 15-17, 21, 22).

The forthright honesty and the humility of John appeared in his immediate correction of the people's mistaken idea that he was the Christ. He made clear that his baptism with water, indicating their change of mind concerning sin, would only have real meaning as the coming One—his Lord and ours—would change their natures by the baptism of fire and of the Spirit.

Jesus, who knew no sin of which to repent, took the place of a penitent sinner and was baptized by John. Thus He, the sinless One, entered upon His public ministry and His work of redemption by taking the place of fallen humanity. What infinite grace and condescension!

As He prayed, after John had baptized Him, the heavens opened and the Holy Spirit, taking the form of the gentle dove, rested upon Him. God the Father spoke forth heaven's estimate of our Saviour; He was declared to be the "beloved Son" of God, in whom the Father was "well pleased."

This attestation of His divinity and recognition of His spotless life and character was for Him, but not for Him alone. It speaks to us, even as it has spoken to all men through the centuries, of the One who is Saviour and Lord. "He is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens" (Heb. 7:25, 26).

And Why Not?

Willkie and the Press

When Wendell L. Willkie, Republican candidate for president, met Roy A. Brown, president of the National Editorial Association and publisher of the San Rafael, Calif., Independent, in San Francisco on his recent western campaign tour, he paid this tribute to the press:

"I'm a great reader of the local newspapers in whatever town I happen to be, and I read the classified advertisements as closely as the news columns. There is no better index to a community. How many persons are advertising for jobs—and what kind of jobs. What sort of situations are available. Who has what to sell or swap. I can learn more about a city from the advertising columns of its newspapers than from its chamber of commerce."

"There is nothing more essential to the preservation of a free American Democracy than the preservation of a free American press," Mr. Willkie declared in a statement issued in connection with the nationwide observance of National Newspaper week. "The United States is the only great nation in the world today with an absolutely free press. America's free press today shoulders an historic responsibility. I believe that the publishers, editors and working staffs of America's newspapers are discharging that responsibility in a great and vital American way. If I am elected President of the United States, I shall fight for their right to report honestly, and their right to honestly disagree with me and my administration. I shall not seek to coerce them down the disastrous road of intellectual dishonesty nor to undermine the economic foundations of a free press."

Relief Costs Too High

Under the New Deal the cost per year per case on relief has increased from $225 in 1933 to $1,004 in 1940, an increase of 343 per cent. It now costs $1,004 per year to support a person on W.P.A. work. The worker, however, receives only $950 of this amount; the balance going to overhead and material costs. In 1938 the average wage earner in industry received $1,170. In sharp contrast to the cost of work relief, the State and local governments support their direct relief cases at a cost of slightly more than $300 per year. Consequently, including administrative costs, three persons are provided for by direct relief for the cost of one W.P.A. worker.

Colossal Debt Burden

The interest on the Federal debt for the fiscal year 1941 will be $1,100,000,000. This $300,000,000 in excess of total Federal expenditures for any peacetime year prior to 1910. The Federal individual income tax for 1937 produced only $1,001,740,740, or just about enough to meet the interest payments on the Federal debt in 1941.

The Real Issue—Peace or War

"The real issue of this campaign... is peace or war. I know of no well-informed Washington observer who isn't convinced that if Roosevelt is elected he will drag us into war at the first opportunity and that if none presents itself he will make one. I know of none who is not aware that if that happens we shall have a war dictatorship with 'emergency powers' in the hands of men who have constantly sought ever-increasing 'emergency' powers at the expense of our political system—and who have never surrendered a single one. They have used them all to perpetuate themselves. I know of none who is not aware that participation in a major war costs so much that it will bankrupt the United States."—General Hugh S. Johnson.

Promise vs. Performance

The 1932 Democratic Platform strongly condemned the extravagance of the Republican farm program. At Atlanta, Georgia, on October 24, 1932, Franklin D. Roosevelt added this comment: "I am going to insist that we get more service for the farmers for less money." Total expenditures of the Department of Agriculture, however, have increased from $110,000,000 in 1932 to an estimated $1,607,000,000 in 1940, an increase of 1300 per cent. The total number of permanent employees of the Department of Agriculture increased from 10,544 in 1932 to 48,097 in 1939, or 105 per cent. Total pay rolls (obligations) for both permanent and temporary employees increased from $45,971,215 to $138,030,092, or 200 per cent. This excludes the 135,800 county and community agricultural conservation committeemen who administer the farm program locally.

Spending Failed

The real test of a recovery program is whether it has reduced unemployment and put people back to work. Despite the expenditure of more than $50 billion in seven years and of more than $21 billion for relief and recovery, the number of gainfully employed workers in the United States was more than two-and-a-half million less in 1939 than in 1929. There are today more than 10,000,000 unemployed. The average unemployment for the seven years of the Roosevelt Administration is 0.402,000, or 18 per cent of the total labor force.

Ejected

The New Deal has repossessed 91,195 farm homes from their owners. The mortgages were based on an average loan of $2,800.

"I cannot understand how any liberty-loving American at this time can be in favor of a Third Term..."

when every leader who ever lived in the history of this republic, for whom the people have had reverence, has said to you it is a very dangerous thing to do. And if ever that Third Term precedent should be lived up to, it is now."

GONE FOR THE DAY

TOO BAD!

Perhaps, in the past, you planned some business trip with the greatest care—then wasted long hours calling on people who were "gone for the day."

From now on, why not telephone ahead to be sure your good prospects will be ready to receive you? You cover more ground, get more action, take less time.

Another thing: there's no rule, in most businesses, against starting and finishing the sale by telephone! There's no better way to keep out-of-town accounts active and orders coming in.

All this isn't exactly news to you—but still there may be chances you've missed. Time is money—and the telephone saves time!

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

By Edward C. Wayne

U. S.-Japan Relationship Is Strained; Americans in Far East Ordered Home; Naval Reserves Called Into Service As Army Makes Way for Conscripts

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

CRISIS: War Ahead?

Since Japan joined the Fascist Axis, attacks on America and Americans by the government-controlled Tokyo press have been exceeded only by the belligerent mouthings of the Mussolini-controlled newspapers of Italy.

When Japan signed the treaty of Berlin, Washington was inclined at first to make little of it, even though it was openly stated to be aimed at the United States because of aid given to Britain. But Japan did not take it as lightly. Prince Fumimaro Konoye, Japanese premier, said openly that if the United States persists in "challenging" the Axis powers, a war will follow. Later there was an official statement that if England opened the Burma road, lone gateway to China for munitions, Japan would declare war.

Many in Washington now believe that a clash with Japan is bound to come sooner or later and that it might as well be sooner, because if Britain should fall, the United States would be faced with aggressors on both oceans at the same time.

Culmination was a state department order to all Americans in the Near East to return home. Britain will open the Burma road October 17.

And in Shanghai, Japanese officials had another problem to worry them. For despite a heavy military guard placed around Fu Siao-en, their puppet ruler of that Chinese city, he was slashed to death by some unknown assailant.

Enraged Japanese authorities declared that the assassination was an "inside job." Shanghai police reported that they had been asked by the Japanese to aid in a search for the slain man's personal servant, one Zung Tsu-en, who was absent from his master's house after the killing.

Price of Peace

Several unofficial offers have been made to the United States. All aim at involving this nation with Japan or so crippling U. S. armed forces so as to make the nation ineffective. The head of the Japanese press association suggested the United States show its good will by abandoning the naval base at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii; withdraw from Guam and Midway islands.

In Rome, Mussolini's newspaper held out another scheme. In polite terms it suggested that if America would stop giving help to England, the Axis powers would reward America by giving her Canada.

Object is, of course, to involve the U. S. that it will stop sending supplies to Britain.

DEFENSE: Navy Called the Axis powers and asserted "if a fight is forced on us, we shall be ready."

Meanwhile the army was preparing at reception centers for 700,000 of 16,500,000 men who were marching to their voting places to register for the draft. The whole 700,000 likely will enter the service November 15, but not all will go to camp at once.

Most reception centers are being designed to "process" only 1,000 to 1,500 men. The drafted men may be held in their home communities anywhere from a week to ten days. Each day a quota will be sent to the reception centers. There they will be equipped, their army records initiated and after a short stay most will be sent to regular army camps to fill out those units to full strength. Some new units will be created, of course.

Not all the new soldiers will be equipped with the army's modern woolen "elastique" trousers and bi-swing coats with sports-back. Many will be handed the old-style army woolen breeches with spiral leggings and the obsolete standing-collar blouse.

Out of storage also came 105 U. S. army tanks. These were loaded on flatcars en route to Canada for training of Canadian troops. It was only a small part of equipment being turned over as a result of conferences of the joint U. S.-Canadian defense board.

Five hundred volunteers, the first parachute battalion, were getting their first training. War Secretary Stimson said other battalions will be trained in the same operations.

Visitors

Twenty heads of armies from nine Latin American nations — Bolivia, Colombia, Costa Rica, the Dominican Republic, Guatemala, Honduras, Panama, Peru, and Uruguay — completed a two-week tour around American defenses. As they neared the end of their journey, officers from 11 other neighboring countries arrived to make the same inspection. All were shown the new American streamlined motor divisions in operation and ended up at the Panama canal.

TRAVELERS: At Brenner Pass

At Brennero, pass in the Alps between Germany and Italy, Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini held another of their strange conferences. The meeting was in a railroad car, with blinds pulled down, guarded with foot soldiers, artillery and anti-aircraft guns.

There was no announcement. Shortly afterward, however, Germany moved several divisions of troops into Rumania and seized the British owned oil fields there; Japan made more aggressive statements to the United States; and there were rumors that the Nazi legions, waiting in French channel ports, would start the invasion of England.

Air Struggle

The duel in the skies continued with greater vigor. Nazi airmen smashed the center of London with explosive and incendiary bombs. The house of lords was damaged, great department stores were destroyed and millions of people spent many nights in subways and air-raid shelters.

Exit

Neville Chamberlain, figure of peace and appeasement, left the British inner war cabinet. He was succeeded by magnetic Ernest Bevin, Laborite and Socialist. There was no peace. That night for the first time in the war British fliers dropped tons of bombs on the Krupp munitions works at Essen. Heavy damage was claimed. Nightly raids also spread out over almost all of Germany to Cologne, Hamm, Hamburg, Wilhelmshaven, and Stettin.

'Eagle Squadron'

An "Eagle Squadron" of 34 Americans who range from crop dusters to playboys of New York society, are ready to take the air for England. In active command of this group of volunteers will be William E. G. Taylor, 35, pictured above. Taylor is a first lieutenant in the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve.

POLITICS: All Out

In the last month before election day, all candidates in the Presidential sweepstakes were out on the stump and dated to stay out until a few days before November 5.

Wendell L. Willkie, the Republican candidate, after a swing through the East and a week devoted to New England, headed back toward the Midwest, covering New York state, Ohio, Illinois and Missouri.

Defense and labor were the theme of his addresses in the East. He charged the New Deal had bungled America's defense during the seven years of Hitler's rise in Europe and cited speeches of the President to show that he was acquainted with the danger but did not press for a stronger army and navy.

President Roosevelt swung through western Pennsylvania and Ohio, inspecting steel plants and making the dedication address at Pittsburgh's Terrace Village, where the U. S. Housing authority's 100,000th unit was opened.

Before leaving the White House the President cited a Rome dispatch in that day's newspaper as proving the contention that the Axis powers were seeking his defeat. The dispatch read:

"The Axis is out to defeat President Roosevelt not as a measure of interference in the internal policies of the United States but because of the President's foreign policy, and because of everything he stands for in the eyes of the Italians and Germans. The normal strategy of the Axis is to do something before November 5 that would have a great effect on the election campaign."

The vice presidential candidates also were on the stump. One day in Minnesota Henry A. Wallace's car was attached to the same train on which Charles A. McNary rode.

FREEDOM: At Columbia U.

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, 78-year-old president of Columbia university, whose politics seldom have been free from criticism, stirred up another hornet's nest when he spoke to the school's faculty on "The World Crisis." Discussing academic freedom—freedom of speech for teachers—he said that in this emergency the right should be confined to "accomplished scholars." He definitely ruled out students. He told the faculty members that "behind the war of conflicting doctrines, there is no doubt where Columbia stands." He invited all who did not agree to withdraw.

Some Columbia professors praised the stands, some were noncommittal and others considered a formal protest. The student newspaper voiced objection. In congress Sen. Rush Holt (D., W. Va.) and Sen. Bennett Clark (D., Mo.) denounced the statement.

MISCELLANY:

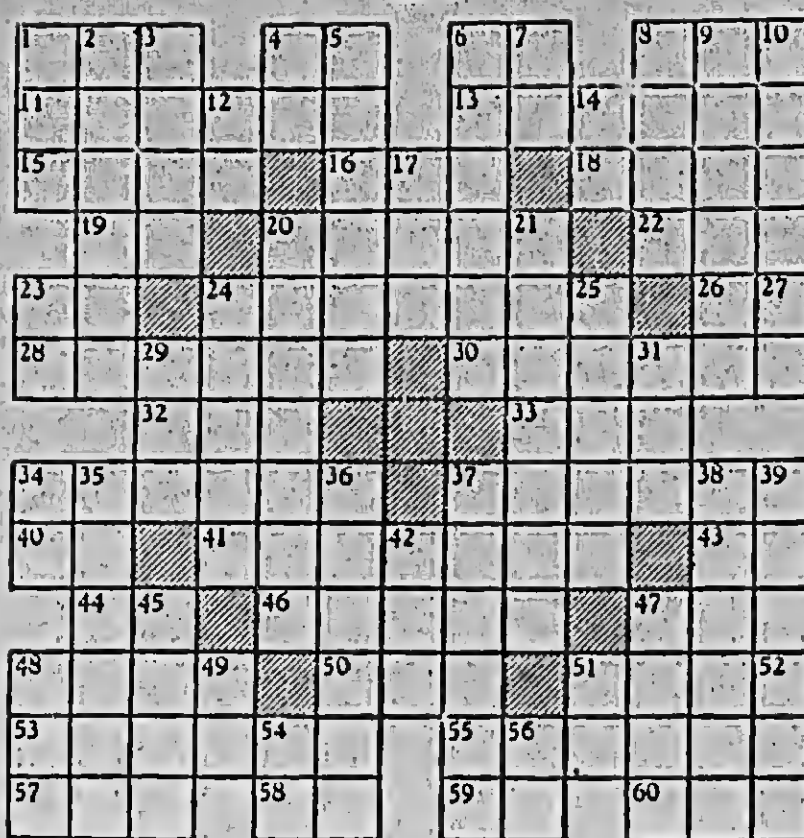

Not all the funniest things happen in Washington. But in one week. The Federal Works administration distributed an official's speech with a memorandum attached saying, "This speech was not delivered"; the navy submitted plans for a temporary building designed to be so ugly it would be replaced soon; congress amended a law which gave the king of England jurisdiction in the District of Columbia; the government reported officially that the Germans were not undermining the thumb tack industry, and a mother-in-law wrote the draft board asking that her son be sent "far, far away."

Steve Vasilakos, who has sold peanuts at a stand in front of the White House during the terms of five Presidents, received citizenship papers after failing on three previous occasions to pass educational tests. The following day he posted a sign announcing he would give to the Red Cross the receipts of two days' sales. "We Americans must do our part," he said.

Wilhelm Jakob Mühlenbroich, California kidnapper who snatched the baby of Count and Countess De Tristano, entered prison under a life sentence after pleading guilty.

F. D. R.'s Economy

Pledge Broken
The Democratic platform of 1932 declared: "We advocate an immediate and drastic reduction of government expenditures by abolishing useless commissions and offices, consolidating departments and bureaus, and eliminating extravagance, to accomplish a saving of not less than 25 per cent in the cost of Federal Government."

In the light of this pledge, let's look at the record.

Federal expenditures have increased under President Roosevelt from $3,794,000,000 in 1933 to $9,142,000,000 in 1939.

The total Federal expenditures increased by 141 per cent from 1933 to 1939. Largely due to an expansion of boards, commissions, personnel, and functions, the ordinary expenditures were increased 50 per cent from 1933 to 1939. Total emergency and relief expenditures were increased by 374 per cent from 1933 to 1939.

During the period of the New Deal, more than 75 new government agencies have been created, employing many thousands.

Reason for Surplus

From July 1, 1937, through June 30, 1939, the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation spent $30,470,000 in disposing of surpluses of 20 American farm commodities which were subject to tariff concessions under New Deal reciprocal trade agreements. During the same period they imported from foreign countries these same commodities to the value of $92,298,000.

Loss in Pork Products

America sold to foreign countries 81,175,000 pounds of hams, shoulders, bacon and sides in 1932. For 1938 our foreign sale of these products of American farms was only 63,550,000 pounds, despite New Deal trade agreements.

VICTIM OF STRAY RIFLE SHOT URGES CARE WITH FIREARMS

Pointing to his own case as an illustration of possible dangers to adults and children—resulting from stray bullets, W. A. Stuchlik of Oak Park and Beach Grove sends the following letter:

Antioch News:

Gentlemen:

Will you please publish a caution in your paper about the carelessness of many of the city visitors who use firearms without any consideration as to how and where they shoot. I have lived in Beach Grove for 20 years—and Sunday, Oct. 13 while raking leaves off my lawn I was shot in the left leg by some one of a party of 2 adults and boy using a rifle in Merrywood subdivision. I bled profusely from the wound and controlled the flow of blood with cold packs and asked aid of Dr. O. Mitchell, Jr., of Beach Grove who took me to be treated by Dr. Berke who had to make 2 incisions, one in front and one in back of leg to probe for the bullet. Was given anti-tetanus toxin and had to telephone to my folks in Oak Park who had to come out and take me home.

Now may I suggest to all those who own property on the lakes to warn all whom they may see shooting a rifle to ask them to desist or use greater caution as this may lead to safety for the many children who romp around here and there.

Dr. Berke reported same to sheriff at Waukegan, who reported to me at Beach Grove and who went to Merry Woods in search of the guilty parties, but without success, as the report received was that neighbors were rather reticent to tell.

Well, I am up in years and it has caused me a lot of suffering, and it is too bad that the promiscuous use of dangerous firearms is allowed without due caution by those who see these people use same.

Very truly yours,
W. A. Stuchlik,
860 Waukegan Ave.,
Oak Park.

Huskers and Plowers, Big Contest Oct. 26!

A corn husking contest, farm sports classic of the corn-belt, will be held in Lake County for the first time in history when the county's finest and fastest husk a wicked ear on the O'Neill farm, Grayslake, on highway 20, (Belvidere road) at the junction with route 21, Saturday, Oct. 26.

To make it a double header program, the day's festivities will open with a plowing contest. The rumble of tractors will announce the opening at 10 a. m., while the expected throng of farmers cast experienced and critical looks along the freshly turned furrows.

Promptly at 1 p. m., the battle of the bang-board will begin with the thrill of flying corn as sweating huskers, dressed as light as half-hatched ears of corn, break along the rows. Promoters of the colorful spectacle are the county's leading dealers in farm implements and equipment, hybrid corn seed, various seed grains and feed.

JIM McMILLEN AND "SWEDISH ANGEL" MATCHED IN BOUT

Jim McMillen, high ranking heavyweight grappler will try to stop the sensational winning streak of the Swedish Angel next Wednesday night in the Rainbo Fronton arena, Lawrence Ave. and Clark Sts. The bout signed yesterday by Promoter Fred Kohler is easily the outstanding match of the year.

The Swedish Angel has created a world of interest in his several appearances in Chicago rings. His abnormal measurements and his Neanderthal traits has set him apart from his fellow man, but his ability in wrestling circles is high and mat experts claim he is on his way to a world's title.

The Swedish Angel risks his prestige and his position in high ratings in taking on McMillen, who has clashed with all the top stars of the game during the past ten years. Jim has proven virtually unbeatable in his bouts and so it can be readily seen that someone will have to crack when these two giant heavyweights rush at each other.

Doubt is expressed as to whether the Swedish Angel has the ability and experience to cope with McMillen. In reviewing the dope it can readily be seen that McMillen has met such stars as Jim London, Ed "Strangler" Lewis, Gus Sonnenberg and many others. These athletes were all champions and were "tops" in ability.

McMillen has been keeping himself in exceptional trim by installing a gymnasium on his farm and keeping his weight around the 240 mark. He has gone into intensive training for his match with the Swedish Angel.

An exceptionally interesting encounter has been signed by Fred Kohler featuring Oki Shikina with Dizzy Davis. This bout brings together two athletes with opposite styles. Davis prefers the "rowdy" tactics while Shikina is a grim deliberate wrestler combining jiu jitsu with "catch as catch can" styles to great advantage.

Rufus Jones, the sensational neuro-heavyweight tangles with Bill Canoy in another thirty minute clash. Chicago fans will again see the pleasing Ralph Garibaldi Italian heavyweight when he tangles with Pat Rooney of Salt Lake. Tony Bernardi meets "Whiskers" Dorsett in the opening encounter.

Tickets for the show are now available at the Rainbo Fronton arena, 4836 N. Clark St. The box office is open daily from ten a. m. to six p. m., except Sunday.

CYCLES OF "SPIRITUAL POWER" CAUSE HUMAN PROGRESS --SPEAKER

"Man Finds Himself" was the subject of the concluding lecture in the Tuesday evening series given at the Antioch High School Auditorium under the auspices of the Bahá'í of this area.

"Every individual," declared Mrs. Carvelon, "no matter in what part of the world he may live, nor from what race or culture he may have sprung is being impelled, even as we speak these words, by a force greater than himself to seek the reality behind a changing world. We are discovering ourselves in a world of new ideas and ever-changing values. We are being forced to find new potentialities and capacities within ourselves to meet new problems. These capacities, Bahá'í believe, are spiritual and in discovering them we will find the key to a new social pattern. For the new world demands a divine civilization."

FIRE SECRETARY MAKES REPORT

The following is a brief summary of the events and financial report of the Antioch Fire Department as taken from the records of the Department Secretary.

At the first meeting of the fiscal year of 1939-40, L. D. Powles was re-elected president of the department, C. B. Shultis re-elected secretary and Lieut. Horan and Chief Engineer Hunter were elected as delegates to the Illinois Firemen's Association convention held at Kankakee, Ill.

Captain Howard Gately of the Kenosha Red Cross squad and Lieut. Arthur LaCrosse of the Kenosha Fire department were made Honorary members in this department, each being presented with a gold fireman's badge.

Open House was held on Oct. 13, at the fire station.

In November the department was challenged to a donkey basket ball game by the Antioch Lions club. The game was a success, financially and very entertaining.

The January 13th meeting was held at the Roundup where the department members were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mueller, the new owners of the tavern. The members were measured for new uniforms ordered from the Chicago Uniform & Cap Co., at this meeting, after which a shrimp dinner was served by their hosts.

On March 26th the department entertained the ladies at a dinner at the Roundup.

On April 5th, the department staged their second annual wrestling show held at the Antioch High School gymnasium, which was under the supervision of Firemen McMillen, Holbeck and Horan. The wrestling show produced a net profit of $248.72, which was applied to the uniform fund. During the show the Antioch mill took fire and all members had to leave and answer the call which proved to be the largest conflagration the village has had in many years. Fire departments from Lake Villa, Fox Lake and Libertyville were called to assist in fighting the fire which lasted from 10:15 p. m. to 3 a. m.

On May 23, the department held a barn dance in the new warehouse built by the Antioch Milling Co. and donated by them for the dance, which showed a net profit to the department of $288.82.

The department members paraded in uniform for the Memorial day services.

In June the department entertained the Lake County Firemen's association for their annual convention. The afternoon session started with a parade, then water fights, hook up tests, etc., which was followed by rain which put a damper on the day's celebration. Several demonstrations and the street dance had to be eliminated. During the evening business meeting a style show was put on for the ladies.

In August the department had 2 concessions at the Lions' carnival which netted $59.80.

During the year 7 members of the department took the Standard Red Cross course from Captain Powles and Lieutenants Holbeck and Rosing under the supervision of Arthur LaCrosse of the Kenosha Red Cross corps. A Red Cross squad was formed consisting of 10 active members of the department. A new squad truck was purchased and equipped by money received from public donations. The squad answered more than fifty calls during the summer months.

In the line of new equipment the department purchased 500 ft. 2 1/2-inch hose, 150 ft. 1-inch hose, 1 10-foot length suction hose, 2 gate valves for No. 2 truck, 1 hose adapter, garden hose and pitch forks.

The department mourned the loss of one member during the year, Brother Peter Petersen who had been a member for many years.

One new member was added to the roll call of active members, namely,

"Pioneers for Budgeteers" Dramatizes Widening of American Diet

How mass merchandising methods have widened the American diet by transforming luxury foods into inexpensive staples, is dramatized nationally this month by observance of The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company's 81st anniversary.

The anniversary theme, "Pioneers for Budgeteers—since 1859," was announced today by J. P. Smith, A & P vice president. "We take our greatest pride in the fact that our constant striving for efficiency and lower retail prices has made it possible for millions of American families to enjoy beverages, vegetables, fruits, meats, poultry, fish and dairy products that were once considered luxuries," he said.
